Wormley Community Centre Update

On Wednesday 29th November, WTBL invited local residents to an afternoon of activities, refreshments and information. High Trees Children Centre provided various activities for the kids, including craft, messy play and imaginative storytelling. Tesco Community

Champion, Lynn, did some Farm to Fork sessions - making fruit kebabs. As well as taking part in activities visitors were presented with designs for possible renovation of the Centre and younger visitors were encouraged to draw their ideas for the building. Peter Cassell, the partnership member leading on plans for the Community Centre, said "The whole event has given a really positive boost to WTBL's ongoing discussions with the Council"

It will be of particular interest to those who attended the workshop earlier in the year, but anyone who uses the hall - or would like to know more about the Community Centre - is invited to this consultation meeting.

Good Evening Wormley!

Forget Wembley, on November 2nd the hottest tickets were for Wormley, as dozens of excited fans queued outside the community centre for their chance to see Declan McKenna in an exclusive addition to his tour schedule. Declan played a stripped back version of his debut album to an intimate audience of around 150 local fans, some of whom had queued for hours. The venue was transformed, rewarding the audience with the clarity of sound and lighting effects of a top class show, entirely in keeping with the quality of Declan McKenna's performance.

WTBL Communi-tree part of the seasonal display

WTBL Tree

A Festive Forest sprang up in St Laurence Church on November 25th and 26th as local groups brought in their entries for the Christmas Tree Festival. The twinkling lights helped to create a very special atmosphere, and visitors enjoyed some tasty homemade refreshments as well as activities including a tree trail and a quiz. The festival closed on both afternoons with carols. A donation from the proceeds will go to HABS to help support local families this Christmas.

Christmas Card Competition

WTBL asked pupils at Wormley Primary School to design us a Christmas Card. Winning designs by Ugne and Rhia will be printed and on sale before Christmas.
